

TRANSIT POLICE

Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority

Paul S. MacMillan
Chief
MBTA Transit
Police

WANTED

Lewis P. Best
Deputy Chief
Investigative Services
Division

Identification In

CREDIT CARD FRAUD

On Tuesday, November 8, 2011, at approximately 9:00 AM, a female employee of Brigham and Women's Hospital had her wallet stolen while at work. Further investigation revealed that the female's credit cards were fraudulently used at Dudley Station the same day, by the two suspects pictured above.

The MBTA Transit Police Department is requesting assistance from the public in identifying these individuals. Any information relative to their identities should be reported to the MBTA Transit Police Department at 617-222-1212 or the MBTA Criminal Investigations Unit at 617-222-1050.