General Information

Boston Harbor Cruises (BHC) and Water Transportation Alternatives (WTA) are each contracted to operate commuter ferry service for the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA).

Times shown in this schedule are ferry departure times, customers are asked to arrive at the dock in time for a prompt departure. The MBTA is not responsible for any inconvenience caused by errors in published schedules, delayed or cancelled ferries, failure to make desired connections, or equipment shortages.

Safety First:

Ferries are operated under the jurisdiction of the US Coast Guard. Passengers are required to comply with the instructions of the crew with regard to safety procedures while boarding, riding and disembarking. Any concerns or questions regarding safety should be brought to the attention of a crew member.

Rest Rooms:

Restrooms are available on the commuter ferry, but not on the Charlestown ferry.

Smoking:

Smoking is prohibited on MBTA property.

Bicycles:

- Folding Bicycles are allowed on all ferries at all times.
- Bicycles are allowed on all commuter ferries.
- Bicycles are allowed on the Charlestown Ferry, subject to space availability.

Parking:

Parking is available at Quincy and Hingham. Please visit www.MBTA.com for more information.

Bus Information:

- MBTA Bus connections are available at:
- Quincy (Route 220,221, or 222) to Quincy Center Red Line Station.
 - Hull (Route 714) to Hingham Center.
 - Hingham (Route 220) to Quincy Center.
 - Charlestown (Route 93) to Sullivan Square and Downtown Crossing.

No connections are guaranteed.

Full schedule information is available from www.MBTA.com or call 617-222-3200.

Lost and Found:

- The MBTA is not responsible for items left on a ferry. All items found on a ferry are sent to the respective operator's Lost and Found. Please see the Helpful Telephone Numbers section for Lost and Found contact information.

Animals:

- Dogs are permitted on the ferry provided they are leashed or carried and they do not annoy any customers or occupy seats.
- Service animals are permitted provided they are leashed.
- Domestic pets may be transported carried in an enclosed animal container.

Electronic Devices and Cell Phones:

- When using cell phones and electronic devices, please keep volume to a minimum.
- No audible radios or music, please use headphones.

T-Alerts:

To receive instant notification of delays on your designated service, you'll be notified of delays that are 15 minutes or more. Sign up at www.MBTA.com or www.talerts.com.

WiFi Access:

Commuter Ferry boats are Wi-Fi enabled allowing you to enjoy free wireless internet access with the use of a laptop, iPod, or other wireless device. This Wi-Fi service works best when using basic internet browsing, including accessing e-mail accounts.

Note: Due to the nature of Wi-Fi service, signal strengths may vary and fluctuate and service interruptions may occur.

Fares, Tickets, and Passes:

- You must purchase a ticket before you board the ferry.
- The purchase of a ticket does not guarantee your boarding.*
- Tickets or passes which are lost, mutilated, destroyed, or stolen will not be replaced nor will a refund be provided.

* NOTE: The capacity on ferries is governed by the US Coast Guard. The Captain and crew are prohibited from allowing more than the stated capacity for each vessel.
